This book is unashamedly designed to brighten your day; to re-ignite happy memories of previous trips or maintain your desire to visit Scotland with club and ball. We strive to showcase the selected fourteen links courses, from the air and ground, in a way that is interesting and captivating. The low sun aiding the understanding of the golfing challenge and the beauty of the location. Then there is the history. For this we look back over some six hundred years with brief observations of the key occurrences and greatest influencers and players to have walked these links. All of this supported by hand-drawn illustrations, an artform that we believe is far better than photography when reflecting on the giants of our game. To these players we will devote more attention, bigger illustrations and commentary to explain their status in the book.

Produced in partnership with National Galleries of Scotland and featuring over 30 incredible artworks by artists such as Samuel John Peploe, George Leslie Hunter, Mabel Royds and Francis Campbell Boileau Cadell, this week-to-view desk diary is a stunning gift or a treat for yourself.

As a timely portrait of international perceptions and media coverage of the United States, this comprehensive collection reveals the global effects of the tumultuous environments and controversial views promoted during the Donald J. Trump presidency. More than thirty accomplished and prominent media, communication, and journalism scholars represent twenty countries with methodically researched assessments of their respective country's major national newspapers, social media, or comprehensive public opinion surveys. Together, these analyses offer a unique cross-cultural approach that helps students and scholars understand the image of the USA and President Trump through the eyes of politicians, media personalities, and ordinary people across the globe.
