Brazilian Music Workshop concentrates not only on the Brazilian styles which are played extensively around the world, but also on those which are rarely heard outside the country. Explanations are accompanied by hundreds of written and recorded examples, and the discussion of each style concludes with a complete composition. An extensive discography, glossary, biographies, and photos of Brazilian artists are included.

Made in Brazil: Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive and thorough introduction to the history, sociology, and musicology of twentieth-century Brazilian popular music. The volume consists of essays by scholars of Brazilian music, and covers the major figures, styles, and social contexts of pop music in Brazil. Each essay provides adequate context so readers understand why the figure or genre under discussion is of lasting significance to Brazilian popular music. The book first presents a general description of the history and background of popular music in Brazil, followed by essays that are organized into thematic sections: Samba and Choro; History, Memory, and Representations; Scenes and Artists; and Music, Market and New Media.

"A book-length investigation of the album Sorriso Negro (1982) by Dona Ivone Lara, a pathbreaking black woman in the heavily masculine world of samba."--
