New Act and revised rules of arbitration The new Uniform Act on arbitration amends the initial text adopted in 1999. The spirit is clear: ensuring promptness of proceedings and strength of arbitral awards while maintaining the parties' ability to adapt the procedure to meet their particular needs and solve their dispute.

The Uniform Act on Mediation fills the legislative gap that existed in most OHADA Member States with regard to the amicable settlement of disputes. The other two instruments update the laws in force; they aim to enhance transparency, swiftness and efficiency of arbitral proceedings in the OHADA area, while improving the attractiveness of the CCJA arbitration center.
